UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

In re RIPPLE LABS INC. LITIGATION,

Case No. 18-cv-06753-PJH

STIPULATED ~~[PROPOSED]~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER AS MODIFIED BY THE COURT

This Document Relates To:

ALL ACTIONS

1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 3 confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure
4 and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly,
5 the parties hereby stipulate, and petition the Court, to enter the following Stipulated Protective
6 Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures
7 or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends 8 only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the 9 applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 13.C, below, that 10 this Stipulated Protective Order does not by itself entitle them to file confidential information under 11 seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that 12 will be applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

13 2. DEFINITIONS

- 14 A. Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or 15 items under this Order.
- 16 B. “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, 17 stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of 18 Civil Procedure 26(c). “Confidential Information” shall include any Discovery Materials that 19 the Producing Party reasonably believes is not in the public domain and contains any trade
20 secret or other confidential, strategic, research, development, or commercially sensitive 21 information. “Confidential Information” shall include, but is not limited to, for example, the 22 following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged: non-public
23 financial records and/or related documents; communications that are not publicly available 24 pertaining to revenue and profits or other commercially sensitive matters; documents and 25 communications containing information or data relating to future products, services, projects, 26 and/or other business solutions not yet commercially released; documents and 27 communications containing information or data relating to business, marketing, and/or 28 product strategy; documents and communications containing information or data relating to commercial or settlement agreements; documents and communications relating to market and/or competitive analyses; non-public documents and communications related directly or indirectly to any litigation, arbitration, or governmental, regulatory, or other inquiry or investigation; and third-party confidential information.

C. Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

D. Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

E. Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

F. Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

G. “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items: extremely sensitive “CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items,” disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means.

H. House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

I. Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

J. Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

- 1 K. Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants,
2 retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).
- 3 L. Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this 4 action.
- 5 M. Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., 6 photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing,
7 storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.
- 8 N. Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 9 “CONFIDENTIAL” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”
- 10 O. Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing 11 Party.

12 3. SCOPE

13 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as 14 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all 15 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony,
16 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.
17 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following
18 information: (a) any information that is wholly in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a
19 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a
20 result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public
21 record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 22 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the 23 information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of 24 Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

25 4. DURATION

26 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this
27 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a Court order
28 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and

1 defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion
2 and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the 3 time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.
4 The United States District Court for the Northern District of California shall have jurisdiction to 5 enforce this Order during and beyond final disposition of this Action. The recipient of any Protected
6 Material hereby agrees to subject itself / himself / herself to the jurisdiction of this Court for the 7 purpose of any proceedings related to the performance under, compliance with, or violations of this
8 Order. The Court will retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order for only a year after this Action's
9 final disposition.

10 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

- 11 A. Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-12 Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 13 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.
14 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. If it comes to a Designating 15 Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for 16 protection, then that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is 17 withdrawing the mistaken designation.
- 18 B. Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, or as 19 otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection
20 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

21 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

- 22 1. for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 23 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the 24 Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 25 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" to each page that contains 26 protected material or, where appropriate and at the discretion of the Producing 27 Party, to the cover sheet or first page of a multiple-page document. A Party or 28 Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection

1 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 2 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection 3 and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall 4 be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the 5 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine
6 which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order.
7 Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix
8 the "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES 9 ONLY" legend to each page that contains Protected Material or, where 10 appropriate and at the discretion of the Producing Party, to the cover sheet or first 11 page of a multiple-page document.

- 12 2. for interrogatory answers and responses to requests for admissions, that the 13 Designating Party state in the answers or responses that the answers or responses
14 or specific parts thereof are designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 15 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." The appropriate legend shall 16 also be placed at the top of each page of interrogatory answers or responses to 17 requests for admission containing the designated Protected Material.
- 18 3. for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 19 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition,
20 hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony. With respect to deposition 21 or other transcripts containing Protected Material, as instructed by the 22 Designating Party, the Court reporter shall affix prominently the legend
23 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES
24 ONLY." Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 30-day period 25 for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated as 26 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" in its entirety
27 (including exhibits) unless otherwise agreed. After the expiration of that period, 28 the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated.

4. for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

C. Inadvertent Failures to Designate. An inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order. Such correction shall be made reasonably promptly upon discovery of the inadvertent failure to designate the material as confidential prior to disclosure.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

A. Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

B. Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the

1 confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an
2 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no
3 change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A
4 Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has 5 engaged in this meet-and-confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 6 unwilling to participate in the meet-and-confer process in a timely manner.

7 C. Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without Court intervention and 8 the Challenging Party still seeks to pursue a challenge to a confidentiality designation after 9 considering the justification offered by the Designating Party, the Challenging Party shall 10 serve written notice (which may be accomplished via email), in accordance with this specific 11 paragraph of the Order, identifying for the Designating Party the challenged material. The 12 Designating Party may move the Court under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with 13 Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) for an order retaining confidentiality within 14 days of 14 receipt of the written notice of challenge under this provision. Each such motion must be 15 accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 16 meet-and-confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the 17 Designating Party to make such a motion, including the required declaration within 14 days
18 shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In 19 addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at 20 any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a
21 deposition transcript or any portion thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision 22 must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied 23 with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

24 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 25 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 26 harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the 27 Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality
28 designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

- A. Basic Principles and Requests to File Under Seal. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. If a Receiving Party desires to file Protected Material or portions thereof with the Court, the Receiving Party must do so in a manner consistent with Civil Local Rule 79-5(d)-(e). Otherwise, such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of Section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).
- B. Storage and Maintenance. Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order. Any copies, reproductions, excerpts, summaries, compilations, notes, memoranda, analyses, reports, briefs, or discovery response that paraphrase, extract, or contain Protected Material and any electronic image or database containing Protected Material shall be subject to the terms of this Order to the same extent as the material or information from which such summary, compilations, notes, copy, memoranda, analysis, electronic image, reports, briefs, discovery response, or database is derived.
- C. Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:
1. the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;
 2. the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

3. Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);
4. the Court and its personnel;
5. Court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);
6. during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the Court. Transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be treated by the court reporter consistent with Section 5.B.3 (providing for the preparation of transcripts containing Protected Material) and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order;
7. the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information; and
8. any mediator mutually agreed upon by the Parties or appointed by the Court.

D. Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

1. the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;
2. Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the

- 1 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);
- 2 3. the Court and its personnel;
- 3 4. Court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors,
- 4 and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this
- 5 litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be
- 6 Bound” (Exhibit A);
- 7 5. the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or
- 8 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information; and
- 9 6. any mediator mutually agreed upon by the Parties, or appointed by the Court.

10 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER

11 PROCEEDINGS

12 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a Court order issued in another proceeding or

13 litigation, including any governmental, regulatory, or other inquiries and/or investigations, that

14 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or

15 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” that Party must:

- 16 A. promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of
- 17 the subpoena or Court order;
- 18 B. promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other
- 19 litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this
- 20 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order;
- 21 and
- 22 C. cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating
- 23 Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

24 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena

25 or Court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or

26 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” before a determination by the Court

27 from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s

28 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that

1 Court of its confidential material — and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 2 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from 3 another Court.

4 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN 5 THIS LITIGATION

6 A. The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this action
7 and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’
8 EYES ONLY.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation
9 is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions
10 should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

11 B. In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-Party’s 12 confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 13 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

- 14 1. promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or 15 all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a 16 Non-Party;
- 17 2. promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in 18 this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 19 description of the information requested; and
- 20 3. make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

21 C. If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court within 14 days of 22 receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 23 Non-Party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery request, unless otherwise 24 specified by an existing agreement between the Producing Party and the Non-Party. If the 25 Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any 26 information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with 27 the Non-Party before a determination by the Court. Absent a Court order to the contrary, the 28 Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this Court of its Protected Material.

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. 502(d) ORDER AND CLAWBACK PROCEDURE

This Order is entered pursuant to Rule 502(d) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. Subject to the provisions of this Order, if a Producing Party discloses information in connection with the pending litigation that the Producing Party thereafter claims to be privileged or subject to the work product protection (“Protected Information”), the disclosure of that Protected Information will not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture — in this or any other action — of any claim of privilege or work product protection that the Producing Party would otherwise be entitled to assert with respect to the Protected Information and its subject matter.

A. This Order protects any disclosure of Protected Information, whether that disclosure is inadvertent or otherwise.

B. A Producing Party must notify the party receiving the Protected Information (“the Receiving Party”) in writing, that it has disclosed that Protected Information without intending a waiver by the disclosure. Upon receipt of notification, the Receiving Party shall immediately take all reasonable steps to destroy or return all copies, electronic or otherwise, of such document or other information, and shall provide a certification that it will cease further review, dissemination, and use of the Protected Information.

C. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum protection allowed to the Disclosing Party by Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d).

12. LIMITATION ON DISCOVERY OF EXPERT MATERIALS

Experts shall not be subject to discovery of any draft of their reports in this case and such draft reports, notes, outlines, or any other writings leading up to an issued report(s) in this litigation are exempt from discovery. In addition, all communications to and from a testifying or consulting Expert, and all materials generated by a testifying or consulting Expert with respect to that person's work, are exempt from discovery unless actually relied upon by the testifying Expert in forming any opinions in this litigation and such information is not already disclosed in the Expert's report. The foregoing does not otherwise restrict discovery by oral deposition of testifying Experts, does not obligate any Party to retain draft reports, and is not intended in any way to narrow the protections regarding disclosure of expert materials in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26.

13. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.
- B. Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.
- C. Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a Court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a Court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the Court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

1 D. Party's Use of Its Own "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
2 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Information or Items. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a
3 Party from using its own "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
4 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" information in any manner it chooses.

5 E. Hearings and Appeals. In the event a Receiving Party reasonably anticipates utilizing
6 Protected Material during a pre-trial hearing, such Receiving Party shall use best efforts to 7 provide written notice no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the hearing to the 8 Producing Party and/or the Designating Party. The foregoing applies except when a hearing
9 is scheduled to be held on a Monday, in which case the Receiving Party shall use best efforts
10 to provide written notice no later than 12:00 pm PST on the Friday that precedes the hearing.
11 Provided such written notice is provided, the provisions of this Order shall not prevent use of 12 Protected Material at a hearing, subject to the Designating Party's right to make a motion to 13 seal, including a motion to seal portions of the hearing transcript. In the event that any 14 Protected Material is used in any Court proceeding in this action or any appeal in connection
15 with this action, except for the use of Protected Material during trial which shall be governed
16 by a separate agreement that complies with Judge Hamilton's Standing Orders and Civil 17 Local Rule 79-5, such Protected Material shall not lose its protected status through such use.
18 F. Non-Parties. The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by Non-Parties
19 in this action. The Parties, in conducting discovery from Non-Parties, shall attach a copy of 20 this Order to such discovery requests, subpoenas, or other discovery to apprise them of their 21 rights herein.

22 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

23 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each 24 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
25 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 26 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 27 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 28 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party)

1 by the 60-day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material
2 that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies,
3 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected
4 Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all
5 pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda,
6 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant
7 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies
8 that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 9 Section 4 (DURATION).
